

Lockport Business Association honors excellence

Lockport Union-Sun & Journal

The Lockport Business Association held its annual recognition awards night Thursday at the Tuscarora Inn on Walnut Street. Among the recipients were West Herr Honda for the New Business Award, which Niagara Produce of Lockport also won. Accepting the award for West Herr is Joe Rizzo, general manager and Scott Bieler, president. Presenting the award is Dianne Cross, First Niagara Bank, and Brian Bower of Bower Insurance, co-presidents of the association. Other award winners include Spring Lake Winery for Business of the Year and the Lockport Public Library for Community Support. The association also welcomed new board members Bob Cammarata of Cammarata's Restaurant, John Gibson of Edward Jones and Heather Grimmer of H.G. Design.

Joe Eberle/Staff Photographer Lockport, NY